FARMVILLE.

There is no procession that ever marches through our streets that creates as much interest as does that of the Normal girls moving about in the full blaze and glory of the October sun, whether marching in bodies to churches or store, or out for exercise and new roses on cheeks or new brightness to eyes, or new grace to bodily movement, we lift our hats to them as they pass in review and are made to feel new gratitude to the good fortune that located the Normal within our gates. It grows greater with the coming and going years and is destined to be the leading Normal of the land. Happy Farmville that she should have drawn such a prize in the lottery of life.

Everybody went to the fair and to hear Bryan. Is there another American who could have entertained such a crowd in the open air on the fair ground? Would the Presidency add anything to his prominence?

The next job our money making dispensary should take in hand is on Main street pavements. It is fit companion for our perfect sidewalks. It is substantial, but rough in the extreme.

Appearances don't count for much in Warehouse circles or the old Randolph wouldn't be in it. They tell it however that it is immensely comfortable for man or beast. Henry county tobacco selling at $4.25 a pound ought to encourage all tobacco growers and I am told they are encouraged. The association will no doubt say they did the work, and we are all ready to give them the credit. Let the relief come and we wont grumble over the source.

Our shade trees are stripping for the winter fight but we rejoice to know that the leaves with roses will "come again."

We at last know just how many students are enrolled at Hampden-Sidney, 124, and now we would be obliged if some one would give us like information as to our Normal of the latter we may at least say, "their name is legion."

It is to be regretted that our Methodist friends wont have their new organ for dedication day, but it will soon follow and then the music will be of the highest order. The choir of that church is made up of the best voices in town and the congregation can furnish any number of accomplished performers.

The ice man is not giving much concern just now but the coal man, while a blessing, is a burden too. This has been a record breaking tomato season but the frost has them on the run at last. Our cannery must have done the best business of its history. What a pity that the banks of our rivers are not lined with hundred thousand tris. Farmville will never grow without them. Pay rolls and increase of population go hand in hand. But tobacco is Farmville's material god and it will worship at no other shrine.

Oysters are fatter but in these days of soaring prices, "none but the rich can afford them." "Cincinnati chicken" is the food of the multitude and with it there are no choice of pieces. All heart and all fat. Still it helps to grease the human machine and keep it in motion. The old Virginia ham must be in hiding. What sweet memories cluster about our one time companionship. O for a taste of a vanished ham. "Alas! poor Yorick is dead."

Our road menders are again guilty of the supreme folly of raking dirt to the middle of our road bed, at this season of the year. It simply means a prolonged and pronounced winter mud hole. The habit should be abated as a public nuisance. Strange that men of ordinary common sense should be guilty of such folly.

There isn't a ripple on the political surface in Virginia. Our Fall elections have long since been decided and there are no congressional aspirants shaking hands with the "dear people."

There may be an embryo President lurking somewhere in our midst but as yet we have failed to recognize him.

And the "old straws" are, generally in retirement but in most instances the last season's derby's have come to take their places. Fortunately our people generally are not much disturbed on the subject of dress.

I am going to be bold enough just here to say that all this talk about general prosperity is mere fiction. I meet with as many people day by day as does the next man, and I know that a majority of them are desperately in need of ready money. To say that all men can get money who are entitled to it is nonsense. "The poor is always with you" and they are in the majority."

A walk up our high street tells in impressive object lessons what a dispensary will do for a town. I say nothing of what it does for the people who drink it and pay the price. One thing is certain and that is that the rich are no longer the heavy tax payers. Men who won't buy bread will buy beer.

Rev. Mr. Graham and family and Mr. T. C. Johnson and his family were among the visitors to the exposition recently.

The revival services at the Methodist church began on the 13th and have been largely attended.

Some of the Normal girls while out walking one evening invaded an orchard and picked a few apples. Since Dr. Jarman's lecture on the subject, they won't do so "no more."

The priming season is over and more tobacco is coming into market. I have heard no one complaining of prices.

The offices in the basement of the court house have been nicely repaired.

Coal, wood and kindling command our attention now a days. The frost king has been working vigorously and the flowers are dead.

The Edewater and Western is doing a good freight business.

Mr. Chick has tired of the hotel business and returned to his work with Walt m & Co.

At a recent communion service at the Presbyterian church nine persons were received into the church.

The grass is yet to grow in front of our Normal buildings before the picture will be complete. Feeding the girls this session is said to be a hard problem. Miss Fontleroy, the new lady principal is giving general satisfaction. She is queenly in appearance and bearing and seems born to command.

Dr. and Mrs. Jarman visited the exposition last week.

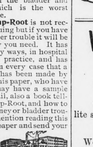
DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.



It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF BUCKINGHAM COUNTY.

As your standard bearer, I urge and call upon all true and loyal Democrats to go out on the morning of November 5th and support the entire Democratic ticket. As your candidate I shall lead the fight from now on, until the air resounds with the battle cry of victory for the Grand Old Party. But it is the duty of all Democrats to lend their best efforts in this fight, which involves principles that are sacred to their hearts, and to stamp out forever the old cry of the wolf in sheep clothes of the Republican party; that you, as Democrats, oh kin! sacrifice your principles and violate your faith.

In the past I have discharged the duties of your office as Commonwealth's Attorney without fear and without favor, and I pledge to you in the future the same faithful discharge of my duties. The nominations with which you have honored me as the highest recognition that you could give of your confidence in my ability and your approval of my conduct as your officer, and the emotions of gratitude that fill my heart to overflow for the people who have paid me so high a compliment will remain and abide with me to the end.

The fight is now on. You have made your nominations for county officers and the Republicans have also made theirs; I am the Democratic candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney and Col. R. T. Hubard the candidate of the Republican party.

The issue is fairly and squarely drawn between the parties, and I pledge myself to spare neither my time nor my labors in your behalf to win success for your party, and the duty devolves upon you to do your part in the battle, and if you do I promise victory will be assured. To work then oh Democrats, and be at the polls early on the morning of November 5th, 1907 that when the sun goes down on the night of that day, we will hear again, as in the past, the battle shout of victory. Your friend,

EDMUND W. HUBARD.

Bolling.

There is lots of sickness around here.

The entire family of Mr. Forrest Guthrie have been sick. We are glad, however, to report them better, especially his little daughter, who was operated on in Richmond on the 10th, who is improving rapidly.

Pearl, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hardiman, has been quite sick, but is better.

Miss Bessie Wright, of Brierhook is visiting her sister Mrs. Luther Hardiman of Bolling.

Died at the home of her father Mr. J. R. Ayers, near Cedar church on October 16th, Miss Dora E. Ayers, after six months of intense suffering from cancer, which she bore with great patience, and not until she was unconscious did we realize what her suffering was, for as long as she was conscious she bore it in silence for the sake of her aged father and devoted sisters and aunt, who did all that loving hands could do. It is useless to try to say what she was, for her life will speak for itself. She was laid to rest at old Cedar church on the 17th. Rev. Mr. Davis preached her funeral his text being "Death is yours." I am sure he brought more vividly to the minds of those present that death is really ours than they ever felt before. The flowers were beautiful. May God watch over that heart-broken family and may she, with her dear sister who went on before, be a connecting link to draw them to Heaven.

Death of Miss Ellen Steger.

"A woman that feareth the Lord shall be praised." Such was Miss Ellen Steger, who died in the 71st year of her age at the home of her nephew, Alfred Garnett on the 23rd of October. She was buried at Bethel, where a large concourse of relatives and friends were present. Drs. Province and Spencer conducted the service.

Horace Fletcher, the foodist, recommends spaghetta and onions as a steady diet. It might be all right if a man didn't mind loosing his family and friends.

A West Virginia man is going to run for Governor just to please his young wife, but would he go through every department store in town, to match a ribbon for her? There's the test that makes strong men quail.

Mr. W. A. Dixon, of Pamplin City spent last Saturday and Sunday with his home people. His mother, Mrs. W. A. Dixon, who has been in bad health for nearly two year, is getting on fairly well now.

Now Mr. Editor will you please respond to Tax Payer's letter? In regard to the roads he simply states facts. One little feature he left out and that is, in some places our rural carrier has to dismount and lead his horse over the bad places. Appomattox is not the only county that has bad roads. In Buckingham they are just as bad. I would like for the supervisors to come up and take a drive.

Mr. Welter Harris and family from Greenway, will move to his farm near here this week. He is very much interested in the school here and will board the teacher. See now Mr. School Board look for us a teacher.

Southside.

"Bright with garlands of crimson leaves,
Rich with fruitage and ripened sheaves,
Smiling the land with her royal cheer—
Bravest and best of all the year,
With smiling eyes and bountiful hands
Here at our gates October stands."

October, the most beautiful month of all the twelve, is nearly gone and then comes the "dreary November" with it's chilling winds and dripping clouds. Already the logs are blazing on the hearth and one thinks with pleasure of the delights of the long winter evenings Surely it is wrong to think of the Autumn as the saddest time of the year. To some of us it is the very best. The harvest is past and the summer is ended" it is true, but we should just go on doing our best, our very best and then there will be nothing to regret.

As the year is closing in it's fruits our people are busy and cheerful getting on with their farm working. Seeding wheat, curing tobacco, shucking corn and talking a little politics is mostly what we see and hear now.

The sound of the sportsman's gun is heard in our fields and woods and the "irrepressible" boy is busy with his rabbit traps.

We think the signs are good for a hard winter—plenty of persimmons grapes and acorns.

Mrs. Anna Coleman lost a fine cow last week from eating too much green corn.

Mr. Robt. Holycross has moved with his family to his father's home near Hurtsville.

Miss Mamie Putney, the charming and accomplished teacher of the Rocky Farm school, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Elvyn Coleman recently.

Miss Mary Louise Wingfield and Mr. Clyde Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Thornton and Mrs. George Wingfield visited relatives at Mountain View last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Oder were visiting relatives in the neighborhood last week.

Mrs. S. P. Coleman who has been quite ill is better.

Miss Bessie Coleman and brother returned from Buckingham last Sunday from attending the burial of their grandmother, Mrs. Martha Fitzgerald. A good woman and a loving devoted mother has gone to her reward "Well done good and faithful servant enter into the joy of thy Lord."

Concord.

Winter time fastly approaches, we begin to feel the cool autumn breez, and the dump weather knocking at the door ann now the patronizers of the "Little Brown Jug" last July are questioning themselves and wondering where are the sidewalks that were to encircle the town after the bountiful receipts were realized. The committee has devised a new plan for passing sidewalks, by contemplate starting on the outskirts and building toward the center, leaving, in imagination the main part of town in the "Slough of Despone." "Who and where's the author?" The committee all live on the the outskirts of the village.

Last Monday morning just about the break of day an unknown and coffer seeking victim approached the home of Mr. John Gilley, about half a mile Southwest of Concord and in his money craze rushed in-doors and standing over the bed side with a large handkerchief smearing his face held a revolver in visible readiness, demanding his prey to hand him immediately, one hundred dollars. Mrs. Dickey being nearby and with brave fortitude knocked the death head from her husband's brow Screams from the wife attracted her sisters attention up stairs and as she rushed to their rescue the assailant fled and was seen no more. Who, color and whereabouts, is still unknown. Such dastardly, brazen and fiendish outrage, we have never before experienced in this community.

The "Fisher Memorial Baptist Church, of Concord is being fastly erected and is expected to reach completion. It is so far, thought to be one of the most beautiful country chu ches in this section, and while low there are but few Baptist members in Concord it is a place of worship that the little clinging band should be proud of. Mr. Jack Lee has the supervision of it.

Miss Annie Steele, after a two week's visit to the Exposition returned last Wednesday.

Miss Emily Thornhill, of Lynchburg, the guest of Mrs. E. W. Stratton the last two months returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. W. H. Steele, after two days sickness resumed his duties as operator Monday night last.

Mr. J. Steele, who has a carpenters' force now working at Petersburg, spent last Saturday with his family here.

Rev. W. B. Jett recently ended one of the most successful revivals known in Concord for several years. The meeting lasted eleven nights, closing last Wednesday night, having reaped a harvest of between fifty and sixty souls. Mr. Jett's evangelistic influence was fully seen and his penetrating truths seem to have arrowed the guilty, bringing forth the desired effects. Young souls from far and near enjoyed the blessedness of regeneration and we repeatedly congratulated, prayerfully, Brother Jett.

No sense in running from one doctor to another. Select the best one, then stand by him. Do not delay, but consult him in time when you are sick. Ask his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds. Then use it or not, just as he says.
